Scouting the Shops

● Poets have written many lovely things about the "gentle rain from heaven," but we are not a poet, and when we woke up on wash day with the rain streaming down the windows we did not feel like one.

● John is not a poet either but he has many practical ideas and interrupted his breakfast long enough (fresh pork sausage from Robertson's egg store, crisp and fragrant, topped with two fried eggs) to come to our rescue.

● "There's only one sensible thing to do," he said. "Send your clothes to the New Process laundry. I will not," he concluded bitterly, "come home once more to see wet clothes shrouding every piece of furniture in this house."

● We made some rapid mental calculations. Of course John has a wet-clothes complex because the last rainy washday he sank absent-mindedly down into a wet sheet draped across his easy chair and has never been able to forget it.

● But all the neighbors send their clothes to the New Process laundry and they come back looking simply beautiful (the clothes, we mean—although so do the neighbors after a day spent at whist instead of breaking their backs over washing machines.) Modern laundry costs remarkably little. And after all, wet clothes hung all around—

● John interrupted us here with a hasty and somewhat buttery goodbye kiss. "Take good care of yourself," he said. "But whatever you do, don't forget to send my good suit to the Beeson Cleaners today. And remind me tonight that I must look into those truck deals at Belli Motor company this week. It's national Chevrolet truck week, and my boss is in the market for one. By the way, Sally," he said eyeing us wistfully, "did you notice National Auto's red hot special in a '37 Plymouth four-door sedan, heater, radio? I took a look at it yesterday and it's the used-car buy of the year. Runs like a charm."

● "You're going to be late to work, dear," we told him firmly. "And don't make a date for next Friday night—it's the benefit whist for Our Lady of Perpetual Help church."

● After John had gone, we dreamily poured ourselves another cup of coffee and dreamily filled it up with thick rich cream from Mission Creamery. We wish we didn't like cream so much, but we do. Then we gave the New Process laundry a telephone call, washed the dishes, noted that Franchot Tone and Ann Sothern were playing at the Daly City theatre next week.

● Then we looked around for good deeds to do because it is our firm belief that the devil always finds work for idle hands to do. We didn't have an attic to clean, but we did have kitchen cupboards.

● So in an effort to escape the devil and also to amuse ourselves, we mixed up a huge pall of frothy soapsuds with a liberal amount of Sani-Clor (on special at the Daly City Cut Rate Market this week) and set to work.

● Surveying Shelf No. 1 we knew that the devil wouldn't have a chance that morning. The shelf was an earthquake of dishes, spices, medicines, baby shoes, clothespins, water receipts, John's pipes, and pieces of string. Taking a pencil, and writing down Daly City Cut Rate Market, we listed the things we were running out of: breakfast foods (Cut Rate has a wonderful special on Kix and Wheaties), flour, canned milk, canned vegetables.

● Shelf No. 2 presented an even more fascinating array: theatre tickets, pie tins, petrified marshmallows, spare fuses and Sue Ann's hair-ribbons. From the debris, we were able to calculate that we were out of several things which Lucca Ravioli company could supply us with this week: Bisquick, onions, celery, coffee, olive oil and crackers.

● We were beginning to feel very happy, because we knew that we would not be running out of things at vital moments, and congratulating ourselves upon outwitting the devil and blessing the extra-special rain imported from Hawaii, when we started in on Shelf No. 3.

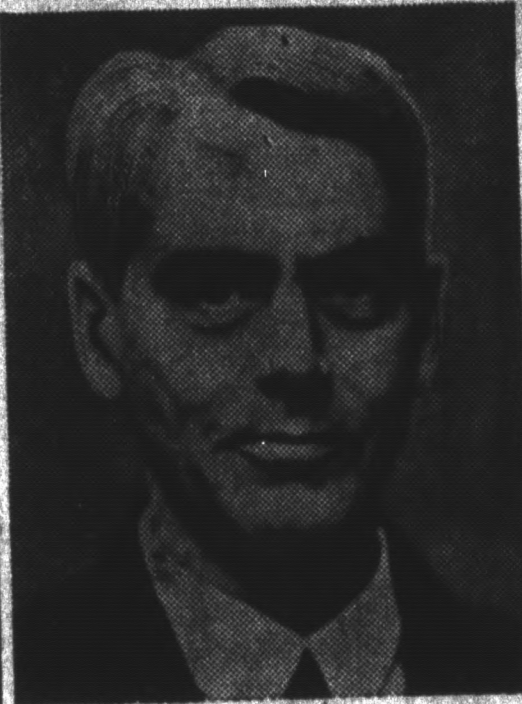

● And it was Shelf No. 3 that proved to be our Waterloo. Because it was there that a small half-burned candle suddenly reminded us of something John had said at the Hilltop Lodge the night before, growing expansive over the delicious fried chicken we had ordered: "Almost as good as a birthday party," he had remarked and laughed.

● We stood there looking at the little pink candle and slowly feeling our blood turn cold. We had forgotten John's birthday! Then our panic subsided a little and it occurred to us that today was the fatal day. There was still time if we hurried—

● We flew to the telephone and heard all of John's friends reply

CALIFORNIA DRIVE

J. Frank Grimes, IGA president, and Betty Roberts, housewife, meet the twin citrus-cotton surplus problem with smiles. The former explains that his organization plans a nation-wide campaign between Jan. 19 and Feb. 15 to move 1,000 cars of oranges and grapefruit, packed in cotton bags, into consumption, reducing both the state's citrus surplus and the South's cotton oversupply in the same drive. The millions of bags to be used are cotton products.

Cottonmouth Moccasin
The cottonmouth moccasin is a dangerously poisonous snake generally of dark chestnut-brown, with some darker barring and with yellowish-white stripes on the head and throat. The common name of this snake refers to the white lining of the mouth, which it is said to display before biting. Cottonmouths may attain a length of four feet. They are not aggressive and most cases of snake bite in which they are involved are due to the reptiles being stepped on.

PRESENT HISTORY OF WASH DAY

New Process Sales Mgr. Tells Fascinating Story of Laundry

C. E. Blunk, sales manager of New Process Laundry, has prepared an illuminating and interesting history on the growth of laundry service in the United States, which will be presented in serial form to the housewives of Daly City, beginning with next week's issue of the Shopping News. Tracing the story of the laundry from Nineteenth Century London to the present day, Mr. Blunk's treatise will offer valuable information to all readers.

Purpose of the series of articles is to better acquaint women with the modern aspects of laundry service and to inform them of the revolutionary strides that have been made in recent years to assure careful and meticulous handling of all fabrics.

Large Wine Cask

The cellar of Heidelberg castle, in Germany, contains a wine cask large enough to furnish refreshment and merriment to an entire army. It holds more than 200,000 bottles of wine.

Early Disease Theory

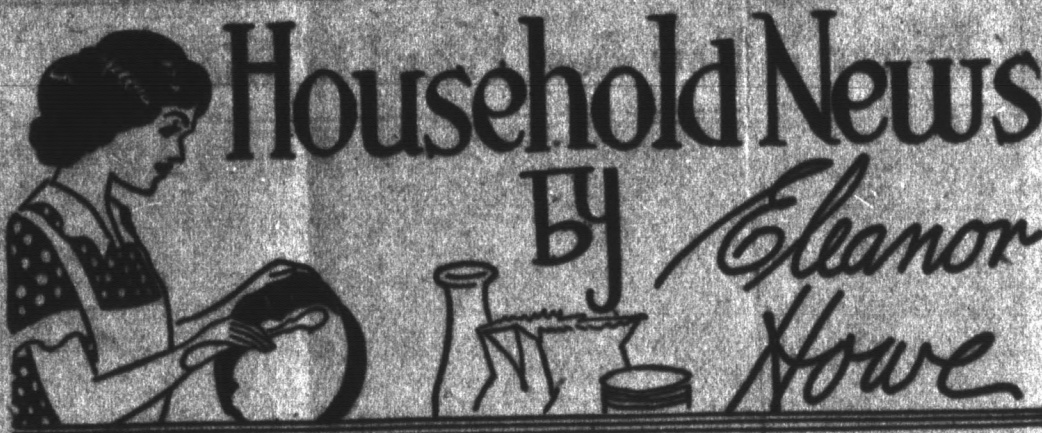

The germ explanation of disease was advanced by a Viennese scientist, Fracastoria, as early as 1546.

Al Fisher, New Process Laundry salesman for the Daly City area. Mr. Fisher will be glad to call on any local housewife and explain the numerous services offered by his company.

Impulses Influence Life

It is much easier to act firmly and bravely under a strong impulse than it is to restrain an impulse when called upon to do so. Of all the battles of life there is not one that requires so much real courage as that silent battle with self, which every dutiful person finds it frequently necessary to wage.

'Sing a Song of Seasons'

In the not too-distant past, we sang a song of seasons in food—oysters in the "R" months; fresh vegetables in spring and summer; juicy berries in June, July, and August; and tender turkeys in the fall. But the newest method of preserving foods—quick-freezing—means "open season" on most foods at any time of year—fresh berries in January, oysters in June, and choice chicken or turkey whenever you choose!

Quick-frozen foods are harvested at the height of the season, when flavor and quality are at their best; freezing is done so close to the place where the food is harvested, caught, or killed, and the cleaning, cutting or slicing are done so rapidly, that there is no chance for the food to lose its flavor and freshness.

Quick-frozen foods are a good tip for the homemaker who values her leisure and her manicures! All the grubby preparation tasks are done before the freezing, so kitchen duty is practically cut in half! That means that frosted or quick-frozen foods are a wise choice when you're entertaining. By the way, you can use them for most of the recipes in my booklet, "Easy Entertaining."

With quick-frozen foods to cut down the work and "Easy Entertaining" to give you menus and recipes that are practical and different, company meals are a simple matter!

Cream Gravy

Drain all but about 1/4 cup of fat from the frying pan. Add 1/4 cup flour and blend well. Gradually stir in 1 1/2 cups of rich milk (or half milk and half cream). Cook over low flame, stirring constantly, until the gravy thickens. Season with salt and pepper, if desired.

Asparagus With Lemon Butter Sauce

1 package quick-frozen asparagus
1/2 cup butter
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Cook quick-frozen asparagus in boiling water, as directed on the package. Drain. Cream butter and add lemon juice gradually. Pour over the hot asparagus and serve at once.

Red Raspberry Shortcake

(Serves 4)
1 box (10 ounces) quick-frozen red raspberries (thawed)
1/2 cup sugar
4 tablespoons water
4 hot shortcake biscuits, split and buttered
1/2 cup cream (whipped)
Mix raspberries with 1/2 cup sugar and 4 tablespoons water and crush slightly. Let stand 1/2 hour.

Pirates on Ellis Island
Ellis Island once was famous as a place where pirates were hanged and for years was called Gibbets Island for that reason.

Ancient Rocks
The oldest rocks whose age has been definitely determined are in South Dakota and Manitoba—1,700,000,000 years old.

Stirring occasionally
Spread raspberries on lower halves of hot shortcake biscuits; top with upper halves and additional berries. Garnish with whipped cream.

French Fried Shrimp

(Serves 4-5)
1 package quick-frozen cooked and cleaned shrimp
Seasoned crumbs
1 egg
1 tablespoon water
Thaw the shrimp as directed. Dip in the seasoned crumbs, then in the egg beaten with the water and back in the crumbs. Fry in deep fat (380 degrees) for 2 to 3 minutes, or until the shrimp are well browned. Serve hot with tartar sauce.

Deep Dish Blueberry Pie

(Serves 4-5)
1 package quick-frozen blueberries
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter
Plain pastry
Combine berries (it is not necessary to thaw them first), sugar, salt, and butter. Place in individual baking dishes (with no under crust). Cut rounds of pastry, slightly larger than the tops of the baking dishes. Place a round of pastry on each baking dish, and pinch the pastry to the edge of the dish. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) for 10 minutes; then reduce the heat (350 degrees) and bake about 25 minutes longer.

Shortcake Biscuits

(Makes 4 large biscuits).
1 cup flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
3/4 teaspoon sugar
3/4 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup milk
Sift dry ingredients together. Cut in the butter and add milk gradually. Turn onto floured board and knead gently for about 5 seconds. Pat out, and cut into 4 large rounds. Brush with melted butter. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) for about 20 minutes. While the biscuits are still warm, split, and spread with soft butter.

New-Fashioned Fried Chicken With Cream Gravy

Thaw one quick-frozen chicken enough to separate; cut into pieces for serving. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and roll in flour. Melt fat in a heavy skillet, having the fat 1/4 to 1/2 inch deep. Brown the chicken in this, turning frequently. Reduce the heat slightly and fry for about 25 minutes longer, turning frequently. Remove chicken to a hot platter.

It's fun to give parties when you've a copy of "Easy Entertaining" to guide you in every step—from planning your work to serving a delicious meal. Eleanor Howe's cook book, "Easy Entertaining," gives you menus and recipes for parties of every kind—from a Valentine luncheon to a reception for the bride. There are suggestions for children's parties, too—parties for 'teen age groups as well as toddlers. Send 10 cents in coin to "Easy Entertaining," care of Eleanor Howe, 919 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and add a copy of this helpful booklet to your kitchen library.

'Just Good Food.'

Good food plays such an important part in the health and happiness of the family! In this column next week Eleanor Howe will give you some of her hints on planning and preparing really delicious foods—tricks in making pastry that's tender and flaky; a hint or two on roasting meats to just the proper turn; and suggestions for seasoning soups and sauces.

Feature Peanuts On January Menus

The lowly peanut will have its innings during January 18-27, when the chain stores are helping the peanut growers to move one of the largest crops within history. During the drive which the chain stores are assisting in organizing, housewives throughout the country are being asked to make use of peanuts on their menus and for hors d'oeuvres just as often as possible.

When one thinks of the many ways in which peanuts can be used, this request should not be difficult to comply with. In fact, it is a wise idea to keep a stock of peanut butter on hand for sandwiches for the children to take to school, to use in combination with bananas for salads and for quick hors d'oeuvres.

For a delicious hors d'oeuvre, season peanut butter with a few drops of Worcestershire sauce, spread butter thin wafers quite thickly with it, place the crackers in a shallow oven and run in the broiler until they are slightly toasted. Serve very hot.

Not So Bad

The Melbourne, Australia, government is convinced that traffic and driving instructions offered in a humorous vein are more effective than the usual type. With every driving license now granted is provided a book entitled "Many Happy Returns," containing instructions like the following: "It isn't your fault if all the other road users are completely daft, but it is your fault if you aren't prepared for them to be so."

Mirror Is Now Best Friend to Win Grace

When Vera Zorina, formerly of the Monte-Carlo Ballet Russe and current Broadway and Hollywood star, wants to analyze the grace and perfection of her ballet routines she calls in the gleaming surface of a polished plate glass mirror to answer the questions she asks about herself.

Miss Zorina is one of the conspicuously fine dancers who give quality to their dancing, feeling and sincerity to their assignments because they have spent hours practicing before a mirror, according to Miss Alma Archer, noted authority on beauty and charm.

Miss Archer declares that a mirror is a woman's best friend and will answer all of those questions which every woman needs to know to develop grace, charm and personality. Among Miss Archer's beauty advice which, she says, every daughter of Eve who cares a hoot about her looks should follow are these suggestions:

"Sit down in front of a mirror and practice graceful positions with your feet. Experiment with your legs crossed and by looking into the mirror you will know whether your legs appear spread and thick in such a position. Then try merely crossing your ankles and see what such a position does to increase grace. Slump down in your chair and study the effect in the mirror. You will see how such carelessness in sitting destroys the lines of your figure and makes you look awkward and unlovely. Sit down again before your mirror with a cup of tea. Watch the movements of your hands. Do you appear grace-

Gunpowder Plot

The famous gunpowder plot of history occurred when Guy Fawkes entered into a conspiracy to blow up the king, his ministers, and the members of both houses of parliament on November 5, 1605. His plans were discovered after he had placed barrels of gunpowder in the building and prepared them for ignition. He was tried, tortured, and publicly executed in 1606. Parliament set aside November 5 as a day of thanksgiving known as Guy Fawkes day, which continues to be celebrated in some parts of England.

First English Bible

The first complete English Bible printed was by Miles Coverdale, 1535, dedicated to Henry VIII.

ful, charming, at ease? Are you clumsy and self-conscious? Again your mirror will tell you. Thus, by practicing in front of your faithful mirror you can correct the faults in grace which you discover."

Feb. 4 Deadline For New Licenses

Motorists can secure license plates at the usual office, 160 South Van Ness avenue, until February 4, 5 p. m. Office hours are 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., Monday through Friday, and 9 a. m. to 12 noon, Saturday.

Applicant must present as his application for renewal: registration card, postal assessment notice postcard and fees as shown on postcard. Personal checks are not acceptable.

Development of Bicycle

The general idea of the bicycle is suggested in ancient carvings, but the machine was not successfully developed until the Nineteenth century.

THE RECORD SNAPSHOTS

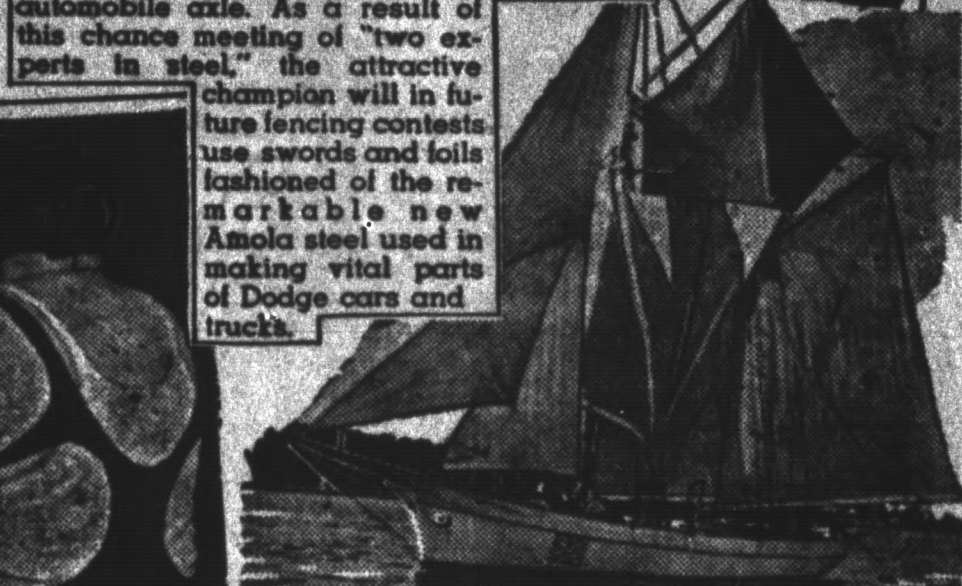

High Scorer—Ann Arbor, Mich.—Tom Harmon, Michigan's great back, is the Nation's foremost contender for the highest scorer.

Two Experts in Steel—Beautiful Johanna de Tuscan, world's champion woman fencer, displays her trusty blade of fighting steel to Wm. J. O'Neil, president of Dodge, who retaliates by demonstrating a razor-sharp knife made from the Amola steel of a Dodge automobile axle. As a result of this chance meeting of "two experts in steel," the attractive champion will in future fencing contests use swords and foils fashioned of the remarkable new Amola steel used in making vital parts of Dodge cars and trucks.

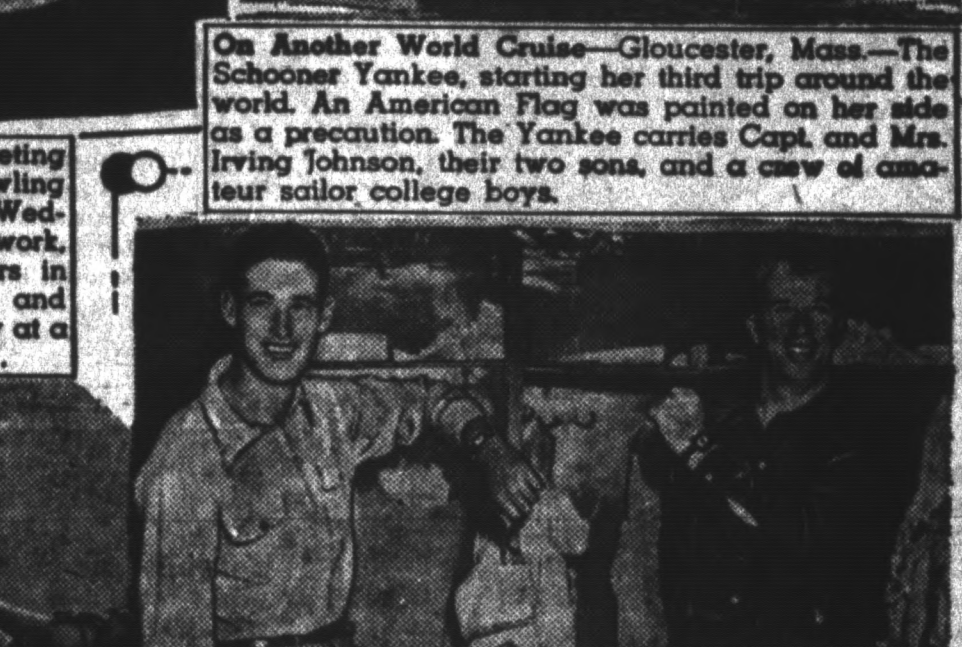

Fred Allen keeps in trim for any meeting with arch-rival Jack Benny. The drawing funster, whose program is broadcast Wednesday nights over the NBC-Red network, is ranked as one of the best boxers in show business and trains regularly at a New York "Y".

On Another World Cruise—Gloucester, Mass.—The Schooner Yankee, starting her third trip around the world. An American flag was painted on her side as a precaution. The Yankee carries Capt. and Mrs. Irving Johnson, their two sons, and a crew of amateur sailor college boys.

An enchanting ensemble for the summer of 1940 displayed by Miss Jan Holm, young motion picture actress.

Benefit Whist Next Friday

A benefit whist for Our Lady of Perpetual Help church will be held at 8:30 p. m. next Friday, January 19, at Masonic hall. There will be a large cash first prize, with several other valuable prizes. The public is cordially invited.

Shipwrecks Missing

New Zealand has a shipwrecks society and no shipwrecks. It was disclosed by the Shipwrecks Relief society that money is accumulating in the bank for want of disaster. The society obtains its finances from the shipping companies and the harbor boards of this country, all of which make an annual contribution. Year by year the funds grow larger. Now they stand at $80,000 and are safely invested. This has resulted in the society now receiving more than it spends. The position is regarded with satisfaction by local governments, it seems. Mayor Arthur H. Allen of Dunedin has said: "It is gratifying to know this money has been invested in gilt edged securities."

Hatless Fad Not New

The hatless fad, which was at its height in '22 and '33, was neither new nor collegiate. It dated back before the American Revolution to the time when English dandies carried their hats in their hands to avoid mussing their curled and powdered wigs.

Turtle Hounds
Natives of the Louisiana Barataria section, made famous by Jean Lafitte the pirate, have trained dogs to hunt turtles.

Muskrat Valuable
The thrifty, prolific muskrat furnishes a living for nearly 100,000 persons connected directly or indirectly with Louisiana's fur industry.

THE climax of a year's preparation by the nation's automobile manufacturers was reached with the opening in New York of the National Automobile Show at the Grand Central Palace. Thousands of prospective buyers flocked to the show and expressed their approval of the new cars.

Complete new styling and countless mechanical improvements were exhibited by the manufacturers with emphasis on beauty, both inside and out. Exterior design has been greatly enhanced with styling in most of the lines daring and extreme.

Streamlining is the keynote and is coupled with a keen sense of proportion, with every line not only adding to the beauty of the new cars but performing wonders from a utility standpoint. Greater width has been obtained and in some cars it is possible to ride four people in the front seat.

Among the many interior improvements are newly developed upholstery fabrics, smartly designed instrument panels and generally increased roominess. Perhaps the most outstanding creation and the one arousing most interest among the consumers is a new upholstery fabric known as canvas cloth, which combines the best features of mohair velvets and flat fabrics. Presented in several colors and patterns to blend with exterior colors and interior trim, the new fabric has a smooth, friction-free surface. Like mohair velvets, it is long-wearing and washable.

In addition to styling features, many gadgets made their first appearance at the show. Noteworthy among these are a front and rear direction indicator; new style radio serials; improved air conditioning units; and seats that fold to a comfortable double bed. Much interest was displayed in a new fluid-drive transmission.

The first regular radio broadcasting in the United States was from a transmitter at the home of Dr. Frank Conrad at Pittsburgh, Pa.

Pulpwood continues to be the most important forest product in Canada, having a value in 1937 of more than $23,000,000.

Windy Business

Looking up from hoeing near his colony of overnight cabins at Manchester, Maine, H. S. Fearebay saw one of the small buildings tumbling haphazardly above the treetops, finally landing in a nearby field. A freak whirlwind had scooped up the cabin from a cluster of 12.

'Going to the Dogs'

Relief at Fremont, Ohio, has been "going to the dogs," according to the dog warden, Hiley Mook, who reported that a large part of the milk furnished daily for eight children was being fed to four dogs of a rural relief client. Mook took the dogs.

Maurice Evans To Present 'Hamlet'

A dramatic event of the first magnitude in San Francisco will be the engagement of Maurice Evans at the Geary theater for two weeks only, beginning Monday, January 15, in that production of "Hamlet" in its entirety which was accorded last season in New York, by the critics and the public, the most rapturous praise ever won for any production of Shakespeare in our time. Evans' present transcontinental tour follows his recent second remarkable run in the play this season in New York.

Not only the brilliance of Evans' acting of the greatest of all stage roles, but the colorful elaborateness of the whole production with the spirited performance, contributed a glowing chapter to theatrical history. Evans is presenting for the first time in America the complete, uncensored play which Shakespeare wrote and not the usual cut acting version. The verdict of critics and capacity audiences, both in New York and on Evans' tours, has been that the entire "Hamlet" is an exciting discovery.

The curtain at the Geary theater for "Hamlet" will rise evenings at 7:30 p. m. sharp and at the Wednesday and Saturday matinees at 1 p. m. sharp.

The wearing of bathing suits to business in hot months is being advocated in London.

Fair Officials To Speak at Meet

Marshall Dill, newly-appointed president, and George D. Smith, the guiding genius of the 1940 Golden Gate International Exposition, will be principal speakers at the annual convention of the California Mission Trails association in Santa Cruz, January 12 and 13.

Leading hotel operators, business men and city and county officials from the entire Mission Trails area, will hear both Dill and Smith discuss the "Fair in '40" plans.

During the two-day convention, according to Howard M. Horowitz, manager of the association, plans will be formulated to reopen the beautiful Mission Trails building on Treasure Island.

Australia's Future

Pointing to "Australia's" future place in the Pacific, her very existence perhaps, Prof. Stephen H. Roberts urges the New South Wales government to teach American history in its schools.

Proof of the tremendous strength of growing weeds was shown at Winnipeg, Manitoba, when a piece of lumber an inch thick, through which had grown a dandelion root, was found in a lumber yard.

ROMANTIC FILM OF YOUNG AIRMEN THRILLING AUDIENCES AT D. C. THEATRE

For smash entertainment, with a theme as timely as tomorrow's headlines and romance to thrill you, run down to the Daly City theatre and see "20,000 Men A Year," ending Saturday.

This stimulatingly fresh Cosmopolitan production for Twentieth Century-Fox concerns the college youth of the nation, who are taking to the sky thousands strong in the year-old Civil Aeronautics Authority program for training civilian fliers.

The film, which features Randolph Scott, Preston Foster and Margaret Lindsay, is told from the viewpoint of the girls who love them and the men who train these eager lads.

Lou Breslow and Owen Francis prepared the knockout screen play from an original story by Frank Wead, which is set in a small air field in California, selected by the CAA to train students from a neighboring college. Randolph Scott is the instructor in charge, and the role is right down his alley.

And Margaret Lindsay is delightful as the sister of one of the fledglings, who doesn't want to see her brother fly—and doesn't care for fliers, until she falls in love with Scott!

Under the expert direction of Alfred E. Green, the picture moves at a smart pace, with plenty of pulse-quickenning flying, thrilling drama, appealing romance and rib-tickling comedy.

Companion feature is "Fighting Gringos," starring George O'Brien.

Longest Beach

Longest ocean beach in the world is said to be 28 miles at Long Beach in the state of Washington. It is one of the principal recreation centers on the Pacific shoreline of Washington.

Randolph Scott (left) heads the stellar cast of "20,000 Men A Year," now playing at the Daly City theatre.

Divorce in Canada

The steady increase of divorce in Canada is attracting the attention of sociologists and statisticians of the Dominion. The figures steadily mount. In 1918, there were only 114 divorces in all the country. In 1928, the figure had risen to 783 and in 1938, to 1,883.

Church as Stable

The churches of Kilkenny in Ireland have been put to various uses in the past. The cathedral has been a stable, the Franciscan Friary a tennis court, the Black Abbey a courthouse, while the parish church has served both as a barracks and a hospital.

Journey's End

When the steamship Edina, reputed to be the oldest passenger ship in the world, was making its final trip from Melbourne, Australia, Septimus Dandy, who for 20 years had been its quartermaster, stepped to the bridge to bid the captain farewell, collapsed and died in a few minutes.

Oldest History Book

The world's oldest history "book" is an ancient stone tablet in the National Museum of Palermo, Sicily, which records the years from 3400 to 2700 B. C. not by dates but by mention of important events and personalities.

SCOUTING THE SHOPS With Sally

in a very surprised voice yes, they would love to come over for dinner tonight. Then we put in an emergency order to the Geneva Bakery for a big fluffy birthday cake, some little Italian cookies, and two dozen fresh rolls.

The rain was still coming down in bucketfuls, but we sat snugly by the fire phoning our orders—a thick juicy roast from Farmers Meat company, with some creamy white cheese to eat with our coffee.

From Milo's we made provision for new green peas, radishes, avocados, tomatoes, broccoli, apples, pears, cauliflower. After all, it was John's birthday. And Milo's fresh fruits and vegetables, like their groceries and meats, are too tempting and too inexpensive to resist.

Then there was the matter of birthday presents. We arranged to buy John some field glasses he has coveted for a long time at Edwards Drug store, and we also picked up some soothing shaving lotions. At Byrne Radio store, we were overjoyed to find a little used radio for only $2.95. John has wanted one for ages for his den, so that he can listen to the news when he wants to listen to the news.
